Dear Mr. Beresford

Thank you for your letter of June 1, telling us how you used the copies of Mr. Dulles' speech of April 8. Mr. Dulles asked me to tell you how appreciative he is of your having taken time to let us know of the very effective distribution you made of that speech.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grogan

Mr. Dulles:

George Washington University called to pass on to you the following arrangements and asked me to call back and confirm that they are OK with you.

1. If weather is clear, report at the GWU Library, 2023 G Street at 7:15 p.m. Caps and gown will be issued to you and press photographers will be given an opportunity to take your picture at this time. Procession forms at 7:40 p.m. at the Library.

2. If weather is bad, report to Constitution Hall, the President General's Reception Room at 7:15 p.m. Here too caps and gowns will be issued, photos taken and procession will form at 7:40 p.m.

May I confirm that you will be present tomorrow night at 7:15 p.m. at one or the other of the above locations, depending upon weather conditions.
